

At every crossroads the church must determine to do 4 things:

I. WE MUST SEE BEYOND THE OBSTACLES (13:28-33)

II. WE MUST BE UNIFIED AND UNDIVIDED (14:1-3)

III. WE MUST DESIRE TO MOVE FORWARD (14:4)

IV. WE MUST BE ABSOLUTELY OBEDIENT TO THE LORD (14:5-9)

Will you rise up with me today and proclaim, “I want to be part of fulfilling the legacy of FBCM!”

FULFILLING THE LEGACY

MESSAGE: Church at a Crossroads

TEXT: Numbers 13:26-33

DATE: April 11, 2010 (a.m.)

SPEAKER: Pastor Dean Haun

God has blessed FBCM with a rich heritage and legacy.

1-We have had a rich legacy of leadership

2-We have had a rich legacy of lay leadership as well.

3-We also have had a rich legacy through the facilities we currently enjoy.

The Children’s Building will be the most significant building that we will ever build on this campus.

But what if we decide not to built it?

What if we decide to just keep status quo?

There is a story in Numbers 13 and 14 that yields great insight to us.

TS-The Children of Israel found themselves at the crossroads of faith and failure in Numbers 13-14.

-over-